

CRIMETHINK CONVERGENCE 2009

July 20-26th
Pittsburgh

Some walk off their jobs, leaving behind a world of drudgery and routine for an ecstatic carnival of creativity. They find an autonomous space filled with dedicated rebels and eloquent criminals, every moment full of skill sharing, passionate discussion and outlandish performances. They wouldn't pay registration fees or be spectators to preplanned entertainment—through their presence and participation they would shape the contours of the event itself. Everything they needed would be provided for free—food, childcare, support. Perhaps this temporary freedom could create the secret plans necessary to destroy capitalism and extend that freedom infinitely.

Join us in creating a sober, consent-based space free from commerce. Prepare for urban camping and one whole week of festive experiments in anarchy.*

Meet at the Northside Commons (W North Ave and Brighton) by the pond, on Monday, July 20th. Write to info@crimethinkconvergence.com with workshop proposals, offers of assistance and any accessibility concerns.

*for logistical reasons, no dogs or pets can be accommodated in our space
